SHARING A LOTTERY PRIZE

If more than one person is sharing a Lottery prize from a single ticket, item 18 on the front of the form must be completed. One or more persons may only share a Lottery prize under a prize sharing agreement. A prize sharing agreement is an agreement by one or more persons who associate together to purchase lottery tickets as tenants in common, each having an interest in the ticket purchased. A prize sharing agreement must be in existence prior to purchasing the winning ticket. Before the Lottery will pay the prize, each person sharing the prize must complete a claim form, and each claim form must be in agreement with all other claim forms submitted for the prize. For tax reporting purposes, the Lottery will only recognize those individuals who have filed a claim form for a particular prize. The Lottery will not accept an IRS Form 5754 unless each individual sharing the prize has filed a claim form.

DISCLOSURE OF SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER

Your social security number may be used to report the amount of your prize to the Internal Revenue Service as required under federal law, and to determine whether you are delinquent in the payment of state taxes or owe a debt as defined under the Revenue Recapture Act as required by Minnesota Statutes, section 349A.08, subdivision 8.
